Commissioner Moses to Discuss Bronx Bridges at Annual Spring Luncheon

Bronx improvements planned by the Park Department and the Triborough Bridge Authority will be described by Commissioner Robert Moses at the annual Spring luncheon of The Bronx Board of Trade to be held in the Concourse Plaza on Thursday noon, April 29th.

Held each year as a review of civic activities, the luncheon is expected to be attended not only by members and friends of the Board of Trade, but also by representatives of other civic organizations in The Bronx and from other boroughs of the City. Hon. Roderick Stephens, President of The Bronx Board of Trade and Bronx member of the Triborough Bridge Authority will preside at the luncheon. He will introduce Borough President James J. Lyons who will present Commissioner Moses.

Declared to be of particular significance to The Bronx in view of the projected campaign for the widening of Eastern Boulevard as an adequate approach to the Triborough Bridge, Moses will discuss the plans of the Authority for enlarging the usefulness of Triborough, it was explained. He will also describe the progress in connection with the Henry Hudson Memorial Parkway.

Included in The Bronx projects scheduled for discussion will be the new Bronx-Whitestone Bridge. This structure, which is to be the latest addition to Bronx interborough arteries is hoped to be completed in time for the World's Fair in 1939 and Commissioner Moses will describe the methods to be pursued by the Authority providing for its construction.

Hon. Robert Moses, Commissioner of Parks, titular head of the Triborough Bridge Authority, President, Long Island State Park Commission and sole member of the Henry Hudson Parkway Authority. He discusses Bronx bridges at the Board of Trade annual Spring luncheon.

Other subjects to be discussed include the rehabilitation of Bronx parks and the conversion of new areas for park purposes. Reservations on hand, indicate a record attendance and members are urged to make their reservations early.

Civic Leaders to Attend Exercises

President Roderick Stephens and Executive Secretary William E. Matthews will attend the corner stone exercises commemorating the construction of the new Bronx Eye and Ear Infirmary at the new site of the hospital located at Tremont Avenue and Echo Place.

The laying of the corner stone, which will be done with appropriate ceremonies in which Bronx civic and borough officials will participate, will be held on Saturday afternoon, April 24th at 3 p. m.

Officers of the institution are Cyrus C. Miller, President; Dr. C. H. Smith, Secretary; Joseph P. Kelly, Treasurer and Frederick A. Wurzbach, Vice-President.

Dr. Thomas H. Curtin, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the hospital and one of the Chief Surgeons of the Eye Clinic is an active member of the Board of Trade. Another active member of the Board is Dr. W. Meddaugh Dunning, Assistant Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of Surgeons of the Hospital and one of the Chief Surgeons in the Ear Clinic.
